Many people don't know who Wu Fuyuan (1935-2018) is. Because he had left politics after the mid-1970s, he seemed to be "evaporating on the world". A long-time political strongman who had only recently read and disappeared from the press died on March 29 at the age of 83.

Speaking of Wu Fuyuan, he started in the Democratic Action Party, was once a popular figure, and indeed he started in the People's Action Party. The symbol of the rocket was designed by him. When Lee Kuan Yew led Singapore into the Federation of Malaysia on September 16, 1963, he planned how to take root in Malaysia, hoping to one day replace the Mahua Association as a UMNO partner.

But Lee Kuan Yew's intention was not shared by UMNO Chairman Donggu Aduraman. Mr. Dong has said that even if Mr. Ma loses five parliamentary seats, he will not give up on Mr. Ma and work with the Action Party between them. To Lee Kuan Yew's displeasure, Mr Dong has put 12

Introduction: Shanghai Yuanzhen Food Co., Ltd. is located at No. 4968-2, Sichen Road, Sheshan Town, Songjiang District, Shanghai. It was established in 2008 with a registered capital of 5.45 million yuan. The company uses exclusive patented assembly line production equipment, specializing in the production of starch processing products, with powder round products: pearl powder round, crystal, new sago series as the main export products. The company has nearly 50 employees and a total area of about 5,000 square meters. It uses advanced and layered management concepts and methods for management innovation, and implements strict ISO9001:2008 quality management system and HACCP quality system requirements. Obtain the trust of customers with convincing quality products and services. Owning a qualified human resources team, "being honest with quality, striving to be a leading enterprise in China's snack food industry" is our goal and purpose. The company leaders meticulously developed convenient and creative snack foods, which were recognized and honored by the national patent number 00125466.9 crystal and pearl powder round products. Easy to cook, convenient transportation, storage at room temperature, no loss, in addition to the growing sales market in mainland China, it is more popular in the European and American markets. The company currently has certain self-inspection capabilities: the determination of product moisture, the total number of bacteria, and the determination of coliform bacteria. The laboratory has been equipped with analytical balance, blast drying box, constant temperature incubator, electric hot water bath, autoclave, sterile laboratory. The company strives to open up the Chinese and foreign markets, and continuously develops a series of creative, convenient and fast nutritious snack foods. The company exports more than one million US dollars each year. The company will take "integrity and friendship" as the cornerstone and "quality first, customer first, sincere service, and benefit mankind" as its business tenet. Under the leadership of the general manager, we will provide high-quality products and first-class services to domestic and foreign merchants. Put away
