Bindi Blossom. A Portrait of My Mother. Spray paint on carpet. Poznań, Poland.
2022-23. (2.05 x 150)

Description: I depict my biological mother on a traditional carpet, connecting the existing patterns with a portrait of her. To capture her essence, I incorporated the Hindu symbol of Bindi into the carpet's flower design, symbolizing her devout beliefs. Overcoming challenges of perspective and the carpet's odor, I aimed to create a meaningful connection between her personality, love for nature, and religious devotion through this intricate painting.
